Allowed Children to Die 1 When Prayers Did Not Cure.

TALMAGE'S SON ANGRY.

Declaras in the Pulpit That Turrey was "Guilty of an Awful Crime."

Chicago, Oct. 1.—The Rev. Frank Dewitt Talmage to-night attacked the Rev. A. Torrey, head of the Moody Institute, charging that he had allowed three of his children to die of diptheria without calling physiclaus. Mr. Torrey, he said, only appealed to Faith Healer Dowle to save them by one of his children, and then said:

"Could you dream of a good father guilty of such an awful crime? Then practically on the coffin lid of this child, he wrote a little of the child, he wrote a little of the child. practically on the coffin lid of this dead child, he wrote a letter to Dr. Dowle, tell-

In some quarters, however, the theory obtains that the effect of hostilities has already been discounted by the fall in values, and that prices will recover after the first shot of actual encounter. But, as we have entered upon a period of dear money, it is likely that prices will fall further before there is a permanent recovery.

Consols last week touched 103%, the lowest figure in several years. Many other giltedged securities went down from % to 1 point.

Plainfield to Have $1 Gas.

The gas monopoly in Plainfield. N. J., which has charged from $1.50 to $3 per thousand cubic feet for that commodity during the last few years, promises to be broken by the incorporation of the People's Gas Company, for which articles of incorporation were field with the Secretary of State Saturday. The company is capitalized at $100,000. At the meeting of the Common Gouncit to-night an application from Sec company will be made for franchise in the city, One of the stipulation of the application will be that the company will put the maximum price of gas at $1 per Chourand leef
